

AURSJØVEGEN (Mountain road)

AURSJØVEGEN

BY CAR: 3,5 hours (+ 3 hours with mit stops, etc.)
Tollroad, dirt road.

The road goes between Finnset in Eikesdal through Finnsetlia to Sunndalsøra. Driving up the Finnsetlia, there are several 180 degree hairpin turns and dramatic nature that might take your breath away. The trip from the fertile Eikesdalen valley, with steep mountains on each side, up to the high mountains with their open and magnificent landscape, is a beautiful trip. The road takes you in towards the dam at lake Aursjøen (862 m.a.s.) and on down through the Torbudalen and Litldalen valleys to Sunndalsøra.

More information on www.visitnorway.com Search for: AURSJOEN (Aursjøen)

After a 400 metres light walk from the car road, you will find yourself on the edge of Aurstupet, with many hundreds of metres of cliff below you.

The trip from the fertile Eikesdalen valley, with steep mountains on each side, up to the high mountains with their open and magnificent landscape, is a beautiful trip

